

The industry-specific matrix below identifies applicable courses for each industry, based on the primary NCCI manual number assigned to the employer's policy number. Courses available to all industries (with some limitations based on payroll size) are listed on the next page.

Only DSH industry-specific classes are eligible for loss prevention activity credit. Attendance at an industry-specific class can result in a maximum of one loss prevention activity credit, no matter how many from the same employer attend the class.
