

3:30 to 4:30 p.m. — Thursday, April 1, 2010

OSHA's combustible dust national emphasis program

Attendees will be able to define OSHA's National Emphasis Program on combustible dust, including a definition of combustible dusts; list the preventative measures and control requirements; and identify programs needed to address industries and industrial processes generating combustible dust.

Presented by Bill Crooks, president, United Steel Workers Local 7 & Tri-county Regional Labor Council AFL-CIO

Notes:

Action items: