#928 Employee Safety for Staffing Companies/PEOs – Intermediate

1 to 4 p.m. – Tuesday, March 27

Participants will learn industry best practices for staffing companies. The presenter will discuss how to reduce injuries, illnesses and workers' compensation costs, and the impact of a claim; improve communication between staffing organizations and host companies; understand OSHA requirements; evaluate host/client worksites; understand National Council on Compensation Insurance classifications and their impact on rates; conduct quality control; and determine the difference between a PEO and staffing company, and identify their common responsibilities. You will be able to describe industry best practices; evaluate a company's procedures to compare them with best practices; and plan the implementation of best practices.
