According to Ohio Law, the Ohio Bureau of Workers' compensation (BWC) is notifying the court that it is ready to pay a lump sum payment of $150 or more to the obligor/injured worker in BWC claim number <<CLAIM NO>>. BWC will hold the payment for 30 days. BWC will release the payment to the obligor/injured worker unless it receives a court order during this 30-day period with specific family-support payment instructions.

Submit all court orders concerning this lump sum payment to the BWC customer service office listed below.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this correspondence, please contact the assigned claims service specialist at the telephone number listed below.
